

Star Ship

Poul William ANDERSON (1926 – 2001)

Read by Paul Harvey

The strangest space-castaways of all! The Terrans left their great interstellar ship unmanned in a tight orbit around Khazak—descended, all of them, in a lifeboat to investigate that weird, Iron Age world—and the lifeboat cracked up! This story is Poul Anderson at his best, ride along through the galaxy and see what adventure awaits. - Summary by Paul Harvey.

Running time: 1 hr 34 m : 16 s — 6 tracks

01	With sunset, there was rain	00:12:46
02	In the cellar	00:16:23
03	The long night	00:12:24
04	In the courtyard	00:18:25
05	The loyalists charge	00:21:05
06	The boat spouted flame	00:13:13

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.

Cover picture: Adapted from cover of Fantastic, Science Fiction Stories magazine, November 1951, available at Wikimedia Commons with a public domain licence. Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by Basquetteur. This design is in the public domain.